

BUSINESS LITIGATION CERTIFICATE

A student must satisfactorily complete a total of at least 21 units of business law and litigation related courses as specified below to earn a Business Litigation Certificate.

Required Courses

A student must satisfactorily complete each of the following courses:

- Business Organizations (LAW 616)
- Pretrial Litigation (LAW 668)

Advanced Procedure Course*

A students must satisfactorily complete at least one of the following courses:

- Conflict of Laws (LAW 623)
- Complex Litigation (LAW 649C)
- Federal Courts (LAW 642)

Electives*

A student must satisfactorily complete at least 12 units from the following list of courses:

- Antitrust Law (LAW 618)
- Bankruptcy (LAW 662A)
- Corporate Governance (LAW 655P)
- Federal Income Tax (LAW 646)
- Intellectual Property Law (LAW 655R)
- Introduction to Financial Accounting (ACCT 540) or Accounting for Lawyers (LAW 697W) (highly recommended for students who have never taken an accounting class)
- Introduction to Business Reorganization in Bankruptcy (LAW 663)
- Law and Finance of Banking (LAW 611G)
- Mergers and Acquisitions (LAW 633E)
- Real Estate Transactions (LAW 638A)
- Regulation (LAW 629)
- Secured Transactions (LAW 633C)
- Securities Litigation (LAW 646B) or Securities Regulation (LAW 658)
- Trial Advocacy: Basic Trial Advocacy (LAW 645A)

Other business law or litigation related courses not listed above can count towards the 12 units requirement with the permission of the director of the Business Law Program.

* Not all of the listed courses will necessarily be offered in any particular year.